

What a visitor might typically see in the classroom and around the school

- Children always listen whoever is speaking and respond when spoken to.
- Children always answer questions using full sentences.
- Children work quietly at the tables.
- Children take pride in their work.
- Children listen to their peers.
- Children follow 'clasp and track'.
- All children participate during the lesson. ('Who participates? everyone').
- Children follow I say/you say actions.
- Children are able to work independently but know when to ask for help.
- Children are resilient when faced with a challenging task.
- Children reflect on their work and can take action on feedback given by the teacher.

DOJOS are awarded for behaviour for learning values

House points are awarded for general good behaviour